GUESS WHO'S COMING TO SHABBAS?

An Exciting New Shabbat Program & You're Already Included!

DEBORAH GOLDMAN, CHAIR

"Guess Who's Coming to Shabbas," a program that partners congregants with one another for Shabbat dinners in their own homes, kicked off at Temple Beth El on Friday, November 6, 2015.

This program, which began in a suburban congregation outside Philadelphia, has two goals: To strengthen our synagogue community, and to help families build meaningful Jewish memories.

Our hope is to grow the program exponentially, with invited guests then serving as hosts in subsequent months, leading to 100% inclusion of our members by the end of a year. So don't be shy! Let us know if you can host or attend a dinner.

President's Message

The Temple Beth El Constitution mandates that our Annual Meeting take place between Passover and Shavuot. I am not sure why our founding families decided on this time period but since it coincides with the counting of Omer it would be reasonable to assume that they saw a relationship between these two events. But what could that relationship be?

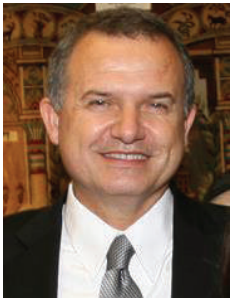

In biblical times the Omer was a time that Jews gathered together in Jerusalem to give thanks for the winter barley harvest and to begin counting towards the wheat harvest which would take place 50 days later. And so we too gather together as a community each year to give thanks: To give thanks to our Clergy and our Staff who work tirelessly to help us lead Jewish lives, to our Officers and Board members who take on the responsibility of guiding our shul, to our Keshet and Religious school teachers who passionately work to help us fulfill our obligation to educate our children, to our maintenance staff who provide a clean and safe environment for us, to our countless volunteers who define the meaning of Kehilla Kadoshah, a Holy Congregation, and to all of our donors and financial supporters who provide the resources that allow the important work that we do to continue. Being President of Temple Beth El has provided me with a unique vantage point to see our daily efforts at "repairing the world", and I am truly in awe of all that we accomplish, and the people who make it happen.

The Torah instructs us to count the Omer in two ways; the absolute number of days and then that same number divided into weeks and days. And so Lag B'Omer is counted both as day 33 of the Omer and as 4 weeks and 5 days of the Omer. The inherent message is that there is more than one way to move into the future. And so it is fitting that during the Omer counting we elect new Officers and Board members to lead Temple Beth El. Mazel Tov to Dr. Seth Charatz and our new group of Officers. I know that they will look at TBE in a new and different way, and guide us with wisdom into our next 100 years.

I thank you for the opportunity to serve as your President. Have a wonderful summer.

BRIT KEHILA
TEMPLE'S COVENANT (To form a more perfect union)

A "Brit Kehila" (Temple's covenant) tries to help create and expand a "Kehila Kedoshah" (sacred community) to guide individuals and families into a life with more meaning and more Yidishkeit. We are posting these 11 suggestions or principles help you find a course of action. We are aware that many more could be added to the list of 11 and we would love to have your suggestions.

I sincerely hope that as we go into the summer months, when we possibly have more time on our hands that you would consider and reflect on your life. As we know well, as families and as individuals we can grow with Judaism and expand their horizons of meaning and fulfillment.

So, consider yourself invited to partake with one, two or even all eleven initiatives we put together. To form a better union with yourself and between you and others, I suggest you react to these principles.

I remain open to your suggestions and improvements.

Have a safe and fun summer.

Thank you Vee...

Vee Nelson was an integral part of the Temple Beth El team for over 17 years working as our bookkeeper in our main office. She was one of the unsung heroes that kept TBE open and operational for all of us to enjoy. We wish her well as she journeys into the future with her grandchildren and her husband Daniel. We offer her a Mazal Tov on her retirement, it is well deserved, and wish her all the best.

The Federation sponsored 8 people from Rochester, including educators from Temple Beth El's religious school and Keshet Preschool, to participate in the Matan Institute for Early Childhood Educators. Over the course of the last academic year this team participated in 21 hours of in person learning, 3 hours of webinar learning, as well as monthly meetings with local mentors.

We are grateful to Temple Beth El and the Jewish Federation of Rochester, for this experience making inclusion a major priority here in our community.

Matan, the national voice in Jewish Special Education, educates Jewish leaders, educators and communities, empowering them to create learning environments supportive of children with special needs, through training institutes and consultations across North America.

Youth Education Corner

I am thrilled to share with you some exciting changes to Temple Beth El's Youth Education Program for the upcoming year!

Starting in September, our current Kindergarten to Seventh Grade Religious School program will be updated to a new model, which more appropriately fits the manner in which students learn in the 21st century. This new program is based on significant research and exploration into alternative Religious School models, and best practices in the field of Jewish education. It is being designed in consultation with the United Synagogue Education Consultant, the Federation's Education Department, and an inclusion education consultant from Matan, a national organization that works with communities to ensure that the learning needs of all students are met. The Temple Beth El Education Committee, Board of Directors, Clergy, Senior Staff, and teachers are all in support of this new program.

While the name of the new program has not yet been finalized, the new program will no longer be referred to as "School." "School" has certain expectations of structure that no longer fit with our modern vision for educating youth. Research has demonstrated that students must be actively engaged in the learning process to have the ability to translate and generalize their learning experiences into their lives. This is particularly important in the realm of Jewish education – students and families, alike, must find personal meaning and relevance in what they are learning for it to be relevant and applicable to their everyday lives.

The new program will have several important features, highlighted below:

- 1. Learning Environment. The learning spaces will become much less "school-like" and formal, moving from spaces that solely have desks to those that are much more flexible in nature, and might include bean-bag chairs, cushions and group tables. The informality will allow students to be more comfortable and relaxed during their learning and add to the experiential feel of the program.
- 2. Staffing. Like summer camp or a home-room teacher, children will be organized into grade-based groups and each group will have at least one assigned group leader for the entire school year. The group leader will be responsible for creating a culture of community among the group, behavior management, as well as teaching particular elements of the curriculum.
- 3. Increased Staffing Ratios: Due to the new design, children will have at least 2 adult staff members as well as additional teen volunteers with them, most of the time. The group leader will remain with the group throughout the program, allowing children both to have continuity with staff and exposure to a variety of people.
- 4. Daily Activities/Specials. Group leaders will take their grade-based group to a schedule of daily activities. These activities will be led by experts who will focus on specific areas of the curriculum such as: Torah study, Jewish holidays and traditions, Israel, T'fillah (prayer), Hebrew, Tikkun Olam, as well as cultural areas (art, music, stories, cooking, drama, etc.).
- 5. Experiential Learning. Students will actively participate in learning experiences designed through a schedule of daily activities. An example of this is: how students learn how, when to say, and the meaning of the Birkhat Hamazon (the prayer after a meal). Through a multi-pronged experiential learning process, students will actively engage in learning different aspects of this prayer in the Hebrew, T'fillah, and music specials. Students will also have an opportunity to use this prayer in real time during monthly community meals, which will have been prepared by the students who have chosen the cooking special. That particular community meal might be further tied into learning about a Jewish holiday, a segment of the Jewish community, such as Jews from Poland or Iran or another component of the educational program like the weekly Torah portion. In this new model, learning is experienced in a multitude of ways, both with purpose and intention.
- 6. Choice. Elective components will be incorporated into the schedule to allow for children to explore areas of interest. This provides an additional layer of community building among ages and grades.
- 7. Timing. The new program will be held during the same time frame: Sunday 9:00-12:30 (K-7th), Wednesday 4:15-6:15 (2nd-7th).

Men's Club News

The TBE Men's Club is delighted to announce a special "tefillin initiative." For the 2016/2017 school year, we'll assist families of our religious school students by offering a 50% subsidy on the cost of tefillin for B'nai Mitzvot. Wearing tefillin is a deeply spiritual mitzvah, a strong reminder of Jewish identity, and a gift that can be passed down through the generations. We'll establish a tefillin fund and hope when you renew your Men's Club Membership, or join for the first time, you add a special donation to help support this important project.

Speaking of membership, current members will receive their renewal notices for 2016/2017 in a few weeks. Non-members can contact us at tberochester.org (select "Community" then "Men's Club"). Membership is only $36.00 and is used to support our programs, almost all of which are free and open to the community as well as congregants. DID YOU KNOW.....

This year the Knitting Circle starts on Tuesday afternoon, September 20 in the Beit Café. Lana Russ is the chair of this group and is a superb knitter. The peaceful environment is a place to work on projects with friends and prepare donations for local children and adults who need mittens, scarves, baby blankets and more.

The first meeting of the Rosh Hodesh group will be on September 21st....just in time to present a program focused on the start of the new year 5777. We will be discussing the origin of Rosh Hodesh groups and celebrations. This special group is arranged by Terri Rosenhouse and Barbara Savage. Together they collaborate on music and lyrics for songs written specially for each meeting and topic. Speakers are invited to address each meeting. This is a great opportunity to add to your knowledge of Jewish tradition and share time with friends. Did you know there was one month without a separate Rosh Hodesh meeting?

The Ronald McDonald House Dinner was a great success due to the hard work of the committee assembled by Marilyn Manis. Sisterhood wants to recognize the contributors to this year's dinner: Members of the TBE Board who heard Marilyn's appeal and responded generously, members of Sisterhood and the David E. Sadick Jewish Environmental Education Fund which matched the donations received from others and made it possible for us to prepare a wonderful dinner. Thank you to all.
