PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This is my last Kol article as your President.

I'd be lying if I reported that two years as President have flown by.

At the time I began office, I had some specific goals envisioned for Temple Beth El. A lot has happened within our synagogue walls within these two years.

This Presidency seems to have brought staff changes. This school year our Keshet Preschool has shone under the new leadership of Mandi Warner. As I write this, search committees are actively pursuing candidates to fill our Youth and Family Education Director and Hazzan positions. I hope that as you are reading this, both positions have been filled and Temple Beth El continues to develop and grow with new leadership.

Presidency has had its ups and downs. Presidency provides you with an interesting view of synagogue life. I have seen people, members, and staff at their best and their worst. That being said, they have probably seen me in a range of moods. It's kind of like a big giant family!

Like any large family, there is a cast of characters and roles. We have givers, directors, and doers. At the same time, everyone who is part of the synagogue family has another family as well. Everyone has multiple obligations and responsibilities.

FROM THE DESK OF THE SENIOR RABBI

Jewish Prayer; a proposal to a new collective experience

The heart and soul of our people are expressed in our prayers. For centuries, our Jewish ancestors used the act of praying as the sole vehicle to express their intimate feelings about themselves, their fellow human beings and God. A Jewish prayer provides us with an opportunity to reflect and examine ourselves, to consider who we are and what we should become. For the most part, prayers are written in the first-person plural, because as Jews, we are extremely conscious of our fellow Jew. As such, synagogue attendance and participation in communal worship is mandatory, although in the absence of a community one is permitted, with certain limitations, to pray privately. Indeed, we are warned not even to live in a city that does not have synagogue. Furthermore, we are cautioned that a community without a regular minyan, according to the Rabbis arouses the ire of the Almighty.

Maimonides, the remarkable 12th century Jewish philosopher, law codifier and physician, stresses the importance of communal prayer as one of the responsibilities of members of the communities towards one another:

*Prayer of the congregation is always heard by God.
Even if there are transgressors among them, God, does not reject the prayer of the congregation. Therefore, a person should associate himself (herself) with the congregation, and not to recite his (her) prayers for himself (herself) anytime he (she) is able to pray with the congregation...*

*Maimonides
Hilchot T'fillah (laws of the Prayer 8:1)*

The message is clear to all of us. When acting upon our prayer needs we need to join and come to shul. Temple Beth El is committed to offer religious services to its congregants that create reverence toward God and respond to our congregants' needs.

To make this possible and benefiting from praying together, we would like to hear from you! We are very interested in hearing your suggestions. Let us envision together what Religious Services will be at Temple Beth El in the upcoming years.

NOTES FROM OUR HAZZAN...

Temple Beth El / September 1995 / Elul-Tishri 5756

“As I write this, my first message to you, I am extremely pleased with my having been selected to serve as your Hazzan. I am most appreciative of your warmth in welcoming me to Rochester. I was most impressed with the search committee, under the capable leadership of Mr. Richard Briskin. To all who serve with him, I extend my sincere appreciation.

It is an honor, as well, to hold the same position that was held, with distinction, by my dear friend and colleague, Hazzan Sam Rosenbaum. I have always held him in the highest regard and I am looking forward to his continued support and friendship. My thanks, as well, to Cantor Mark Goldman for his advice and assistance.

I am looking forward to meeting you. Together, I am confident that we can work together to ensure that our congregation remains both vibrant and an inspiration to our youth. To be sure, there will be a period of time adjustment for everyone, but with your patience, understanding and help, I know that we will be successful ...”

(Fast forwarding March, 2018 / Nisan 5778)

So began my very first Kol article and my first year as Hazzan at TBE. It is incredible to me that so much time as passed! Most of our present-day students had not even been born! Sadly, so many people that welcomed me back in '95 are no longer here....and so on.

But this is not a time for sad thoughts but rather one of looking forward. Even after we read a great book, we place it back on the shelf with a sigh and reflect. But then, we try to find another work by the same author or go to see a movie based on the book and/or suggest it to our friends. The chapters in the book as do the chapters in our lives have the ability to change our perspective, open some new doors, causing us to pause, all the while providing us with a sense of accomplishment and pride in our ability to have reached this point in our lives.

I am at a loss in attempting to find words that speak to the many, many connections with you at both the happy and sad times in your lives.

As I have said many times, music can and does serve as that “connective tissue” between people. It has been my privilege to join with you in music of all types. The role of Hazzan in prayer is to “lift the words off the page” and send them to you. And then there were the many concerts throughout the years. I sincerely thank you for your continued support.

Lisa and I will continue to be in the community. We look forward to seeing you “around town”. I wish you good health and a wonderful and safe summer!

With the warmest regards,

Hazzan Leubitz

YOUTH EDUCATION CORNER

Spring is in the air and as the trees bud and flowers bloom, our students and staff are anticipating the end of the school year. What an incredible year it has been. Tradition is an important part of Judaism and our religious programming. This year our students once again enjoyed being part of the World Wide Wrap and participated in the Yad Workshop. Our annual Purim Megillah Reading and Carnival lived up to its name as the Happiest Purim on Earth thanks to the many volunteers from the Youth Committee, USY, Kadima, Limmud and Koolanu. The 3rd grade Siddur Ceremony took place during our March Shabbaton. Integrating this rite of passage into a Shabbat morning service was very special as the students used the siddurim they received to lead the congregation in prayer. If you had the privilege of attending this service you witnessed parents presenting their children with their very own siddurim which were enveloped in covers they decorated together. On the inside cover of each siddur was a personal message to each student from his/her parents. One by one the parents read their heartfelt words to their children as they presented them with their siddurim in front of the congregation. I, like many, was moved to tears by these beautiful and personal exchanges. The smiles on the faces of the children and the sparkles in their eyes as they received their siddurim and listened with pride to their parents remarks was a site to behold. The memories of this special ceremony will surely stay with these families for many years to come.

This year we also introduced some exciting new programming to Limmud. Our First Friday Night Services and Dinners and Family Shabbat Services each featured specific grades and gave our students an opportunity to participate in services. The dinners also provided families with a chance to get to know one another. On February 11th we held a Mishloach Manot Mitzvah Day to give all of our students an opportunity to participate in Tikkun Olam. Our Limmud students baked more than 200 delicious hamantaschen, which they placed in beautifully decorated bags. Parent volunteers helped with every component of this school-wide program including delivering the Mishloach Manot to Jewish seniors in the community. In addition, our Koolanu teens made PB&J sandwiches for guests at Asbury Dining Center. TBE's 6-8th grade students hosted their peers from the First Unitarian Church on March 25th for an Interfaith Learning Program. This is the first of what we hope will be many opportunities for our students to engage with students from our community and other faiths to learn and grow together. In addition, this year the Education Committee invited Limmud madrichim to their meetings to share their respective curriculum and key learnings. These discussions have proven to be both informative and enlightening.

B'Shalom,
Jody Dietz

EARLY CHILDHOOD UPDATE

Spring has truly sprung in Keshet and the Early Childhood Department! We have had some amazing opportunities over the past month, including a tour of the synagogue with Rabbi and Hazzan, family visit to the Model Matzah Bakery, trip to Hillel School, special art day with Gail Vail, and even Channel 13's Mark McLean. Mark McLean brought the storm tracker truck, and talked to the children about the different types of storms and how they relate to climate.

We also have been booming with registrations! Camp Keshet registration went out before February break, and school registration went out mid-March. Both registrations are rolling in, and still going strong! Please feel free to contact me for more information on our one-of-a kind preschool camp and wonderfully enriching preschool program.

The next few months will be busy with end-of the year prep and our celebrations of our mothers and fathers. Mother's Day Tea will be from 11:30-12:30 on May 10. Children will be making lunch for their moms and doing a special performance in the classroom! Donuts with Daddy will be on June 7 at 9:15, where we will have breakfast for the dads with special songs. Our end of the year party will be on June 15. More information will follow!

We will be finishing the year strong with Tot Shabbat as well. There will be a special Tot Shavout on Sunday, May 20. This service is geared towards children as young as 18 months through first grade. The final Tot Shabbat of the season will be on Friday, June 8. It will be a celebration of the end of school.

Please feel free to contact me on ways to get your young children involved in synagogue life. There are several opportunities to engage our youngest congregants! For more information about any of our early childhood programs, please feel free to contact me at mwarner@tberochester.org. I look forward to hearing from you!

L'Shalom,
Mandi Warner

Don't forget to register for Camp Keshet!

Sign up for 1 or 7 weeks of fun! Our themes this year include: Welcome to Summer, The Amazing Race, A Week of a Jewish Year, Let's Get Cooking, We're Going Camping, Life at the Zoo, and Messy Art!

A Choice for Difficult Times: A New Pall Option for Funerals at Temple Beth El SISTERHOOD's group of quilters and sewers have worked to create an additional option for all Temple Beth El congregants to choose from at times which are difficult. Sponsored by Peggy Blumenthal and led by Janice Greenberg a bereavement quilt has been created by this group of women to provide this choice. The stitchers all worked carefully and lovingly to create this beautiful pall in colors as spelled out in Torah. We are grateful to Rabbi Bitran for his help in making our choices.
