GUESS WHO'S COMING TO SHABBAS?

An Exciting New Shabbat Program & You're Already Included!

DEBORAH GOLDMAN, CHAIR

"Guess Who's Coming to Shabbas," a program that partners congregants with one another for Shabbat dinners in their own homes, kicked off at Temple Beth El on Friday, November 6, 2015.

This program, which began in a suburban congregation outside Philadelphia, has two goals: To strengthen our synagogue community, and to help families build meaningful Jewish memories.

Our hope is to grow the program exponentially, with invited guests then serving as hosts in subsequent months, leading to 100% inclusion of our members by the end of a year. So don't be shy! Let us know if you can host or attend a dinner.

Guess Who's Coming to Shabbas?

Sign up Form (also available at tberochester.org)

President's Message

Where to begin? What to write?

I have never been President of anything before. I have never before written an article as President. However, I have been part of a community, so this is where I will begin...

We are all connected to multiple communities. We might be connected through our neighborhoods, our schools, social and professional organizations, sports teams, etc. Personally, my life revolves around our family, friends, the medical community, golf, and fantasy football. Judaism has always been a part of my life; it is more than peripheral; it morphs into all aspects of my family life.

By becoming president of Temple Beth El, I have made a commitment to actively engage in our synagogue community.

Everyone is a member at TBE for a different reason. I recognize that people come to TBE with a variety of spiritual, cultural and social needs. I'll be here a lot. I hope to see you here. TBE is striving to foster and develop a community appealing to many needs. It is my hope that in this coming year all of our congregants will become involved in some part of the TBE community. TBE needs all of you!

Do you have a special talent, skill, or experience that can help TBE? Do you enjoy cooking, building, gardening, studying, or teaching? I ask you to consider volunteering your time to TBE. We are always looking for people to help with the many things that are going on. We have a brand new Youth Education Program, Limmud, beginning this fall – perhaps you have teaching experience to share. We offer a range of adult education programs. There are endless event planning committees for affairs like the Hanukkah and Purim parties – please help make these TBE events yours. TBE's kitchen is always open and looking for help in preparing for kiddushim and other synagogue events. The opportunities are endless. Our TBE community can only be what we collectively make it.

Make a New Year's resolution to become more involved in Temple Beth El. I promise that you will not regret it.

L'Shana Tova,
Seth Charatz
President

From the Desk of the Senior Rabbi

Life's Large and Small Problems

Some time ago I read a wonderful sermon by Rabbi Morris Adler, (may his memory be for a blessing.) In it, he quoted an interview he had read with a person who had just walked across America.

Stationed in New York reporters asked this person what was the thing that had bothered him most during his three thousand-mile journey? They expected him to say the Rocky Mountain range, the Mississippi River, or the crowded cities. Instead, this athlete said that the greatest obstacle he had encountered were the pebbles in his shoes. The pebbles in his shoes plagued him all the way. To Rabbi Adler, and many years later, to me, this finding has a profound truth. I would say how lucky this man was that he missed the big problems, the unbearable issues of life. He had little problems to take care of as he walked, nothing major, he just kept on going, cleaning his shoes, as he continued his trip. However, the more I think about it, I realize that in our lives we tend to do exactly the opposite. We concentrate on major issues and forget the pebbles in our shoes, the little deficiencies, the minor weaknesses, and the small transgressions here and there. We have immunized our conscience. We no longer pay attention to the unimportant obstacles as we plough through the path of a better life. Sometimes we voice our opinion against the big injustices of life, the major events. The small ones are not even mentioned. We tend to forget that throughout life we have allowed the small problems to erode our character. We permit the years to eat away at our personality. We are strong enough to resist the large temptations. When was the last time you robbed a bank, burned a house, or hit your friend? You could say to yourself, "I have resisted these large temptations". Please don't make the mistake that because you have not done any of these things you are OK. It is the small temptations, the little hypocrisies, and the little duplicities, which really destroy us. We lose our Judaism by small doses of abandonment. If we observe Judaism only in dramatic moments, only when we need a Minyan, only when we celebrate a life cycle event, that erodes our Judaism. Every time we lower the thresholds of observance, commitment and compassion, the great casualty is our character.

L'Shanah Tovah to you and your families,
Rabbi Leonardo Bitran

Notes From Our Hazzan. . .

Dear Friends;

Over the past several weeks, as I have been recuperating from surgery, I have been reminded of how wonderful it is that we form not only a congregation...not only a temple, but also a "Kehilla", a community.

Let me first say that this 'visit' to the hospital and to that community came as a total surprise. The surgeon and other doctors were terrific. The nursing staff was most attentive. As you are probably aware, one does not go to the hospital to rest! So, now, as I write this, it is toward the last days of August and I am, indeed, resting and feeling stronger each day. I hope to be back, at full capacity, very soon. We have a full and ambitious fall planned and I look forward to having you being a part of it.

I mention all of this to you as a kind of backdrop for the real motivation for writing this. It was your thoughtfulness...your caring...your kind words and concern that moved me. It'll be nearly impossible to adequately and personally thank you for your good wishes. However, please know that you helped me tremendously.

Often times, when Rabbi Bitran and I visit the ill in the hospital or Jewish Home, it is sometimes easy to underestimate how our visits can help the psyche of one who is confined due to an illness or accident. Through my recent "journey", I have been reminded never to take lightly the good all of us can perform by reaching out to those in need.

And now it is time to turn our attention to the High Holydays, Sukkot, Simhat Torah, Thanksgiving and Hanukkah. Each in their very own and unique way, these major holidays focus on the full gamut of Jewish, indeed human, emotions and experiences. As we have begun the offering of selihot, the penitential prayers of the season, we prepare ourselves to celebrate the Birthday of the World, in Rosh HaShanah. We ask for forgiveness and to be sealed in the Book of Life, which is then followed by our focusing our attention on the Sukkah, the quintessential symbol of our frailty. The Jewish holiday season ends and begins with Simhat Torah to celebrate the new cycle of Torah portions. I hope you join with me in appreciating the richness and the in-depth thematic material in this season of the year. May the new year bring you and yours a spiritual renewal and a renewed sense of community.

Shana Tovah !!

Youth Education Corner

The values we learn from Torah and our tradition provide us with beautiful guidance for living our lives. A Jewish value that resonates very strongly with me, and one that I find very important to teach our children, is that all people are created B'tzelem Elohim, created in the image of God. Each person has something unique and incredibly valuable to share with the world. Together as a community, we are so much stronger as we bring each of these qualities together. Being created B'tzelem Elohim has important implications on both how we should treat one another and how we should treat ourselves. It demands that we respect each other and value what each person can offer to a community. It also inspires the individual to bring his or her talents forward.

One of the key underpinnings of Limmud, Temple Beth El's new Youth Education Program, is understanding that it is our obligation to make sure that each of our children receives a Jewish education that meets his or her needs. Not only have we redesigned some of our learning spaces to make them more comfortable and exciting for children, we have redesigned our staff structure to make sure that we are able to provide them with the right kind of support. We have talented educators who design engaging educational experiences. In areas that can be challenging for children to acquire a skill, such as Hebrew reading, we have additional educators so children can get more individualized assistance. We have Madricim, our group leaders, who build community amongst the groups of children; many of our groups have multiple Madrichim in order to provide the additional support for some of our children with special needs.

Among the many important goals of Limmud, the program aspires to live the value that each person is created B'tzelem Elohim. This value is central to the community that is fostered among the children in the different grade-based groups. It is central to the design of the educational experiences. Through both example and practice, we strive to partner with families to help instill this value in the children of our congregation.

If you would like more information about our new Limmud program, please contact me in the Education Office at ssofian@tberochester.org or (585) 473-1190.

USY

Temple Beth El is hosting Tzafon USY's Fall Kallah the weekend of December 2-4. We will have teens from congregations all over Upstate and Western New York with us for an exciting, enriching, fun, meaningful weekend.

We need several volunteers to help us host them. Volunteers are needed for cooking and serving meals at Beth El and hosting teens in their homes. Please contact Susan Trumble, Youth Committee co-Chair, at susan.speechteach@gmail.com if you are able to help.

Keshet's New Pitzel Class Registration Open November 7

Open to all children turning 2 before 9/1/17.
Classes begin January 3, every Tuesday and Thursday. There will be a staggered schedule in the first few weeks leading up to our regular 3 hr sessions from 9 am-12 pm.

To register, or for more information, please contact
Jo Sohinki at jsohinki@tberochester.org or Michelle Caron at mcaron@tberochester.org.
Or call the school office at 473-1190

It is my privilege and honor to become part of the Temple Beth El family as the Director of Early Childhood Education and Programming. I look forward to getting to know all of you and your children during the next couple of months in the Keshet Preschool Program as well as during programming for families with young children here at Temple Beth El.

I have been in the field of Early Childhood Education for over 30 years. Because of my husband's career in Jewish communal service (Arnie is the Executive Director of the JCC of Greater Rochester), our journey has taken us to many different parts of the country where I have taught and directed Preschool's in Synagogues and JCC's. Arnie and I live in Pittsford and we have a son who lives in Manhattan and a son, daughter in law and grandson in Pittsburgh.

I look forward to getting to know you and your family as we begin this New Year together.

L'Shana Tova
Jo
Director of Early Childhood Education and Programming

There is a Yiddish expression that goes something like this: Wherever children are learning, there dwells a divine presence. My many years of preschool education have made a complete believer out of me. I just love the beautiful, innocent, and thoroughly amazing things that children do and say. Of course, I've witnessed the opposite too, but truly, not that often. Children, if allowed to be children, love to play, love to dance, love to dig in the sand, love to hear stories and love to hug and be hugged by people they fall in love with. It is magic, it is a divine presence, and I have been blessed to feel this every single morning as I greet our teachers, children and their families at our Keshet doors.

Change is difficult but change is good. It brings new opportunities and new adventures. I will very much miss my position as the Keshet Preschool director. My deepest wishes for the school, for the Temple and for me, are that these changes bring wonderful [and divine] new times to everyone. Personally, I will never forget all of you and all of this.

I would like to warmly welcome Jo Sohinki as the new Director of Early Childhood Education and Programming. Jo has a great deal of Early Childhood experience that she will lovingly be bringing to Temple Beth El and Keshet Preschool. I wish her a most amazing experience in this very special school and synagogue. Please remember to introduce yourself to Jo and welcome her to this wonderful community that is Temple Beth El.

L'hitraot and thank you all!

Men's Club

Men's Club of Temple Beth El Involving Jewish Men in Jewish Life

Special Men's Club "Tefillin Initiative"

The Men's Club is delighted to announce that for the 2016/2017 school year, we'll offer to pay 50% of the cost of Tefillin for B'nai Mitzvot. Wearing Tefillin is a deeply spiritual mitzvah, a strong reminder of Jewish identity, and a gift that can be passed down through the generations. We've established a "Tefillin fund" for this project and hope when you renew or join the Men's Club, you add a special donation to help support it.

Our 2016-2017 Breakfast Program series continues on November 13 and December 4 with presentations designed to educate and entertain. For details, look for flyers and check the TBE website. Usually, the hot breakfast buffet is at 9:30 AM, followed by the speaker at 10:15 AM. The menu includes hot scrambled eggs, plus bagels and lox and other goodies prepared by Jeff Stolberg and his crew. We hope to see you there, and at all our other events.

We plan to put up the TBE Sukkah during the second week of October and to take it down on October 26th. (Again, check the TBE website for exact times and details.) We'll need person-power for this, so if you can, please give us a few hours to help.

Our Board Meetings are normally on the first Wednesday of each month from 7:00-9:00 PM in the Youth Lounge. Board meetings are now open to all members, whether or not they're on the Board.

Remember, membership is only $36.00 and is used to support our programs, almost all of which are free and open to the community as well as congregants. We do very little fund raising, so your dues are vitally important. If you've already renewed or joined for this year, thanks! If you haven't, please do.

Watch for flyers and check the TBE website for details of future programs (including Sukkah construction).

Men's Club needs your help!

Liquid refreshments at our Kiddush Table are running dry!

Donations of unopened bottles are needed and appreciated.

Please drop donations

DID YOU KNOW.....

The Rosh Chodesh Group has a new pattern this year: The September and April meetings will be at 7:00 p.m. so that travelling with some light is possible. In November and March, we will meet at 1:00 p.m. when it will be lighter and weather won't bother us so much.

Sisterhood is pleased and honored to have had help from Malcolm Musiker, Jessie Attkin, Nancy Gossin and Gail Finkelstein, photographers par excellence, in preparing 613 Recipes.

Judy Ressel is thought of fondly by so many of us in Sisterhood. That she is kind and thoughtful go without saying. What does need saying is a huge thank you for the cards she sends to Sisterhood members who are ill, or celebrating a special occasion. Thanks Judy!

Torah Fund

JSisterhood supports the work JTS does so beautifully in training clergy for the years to come. Each year, Torah Fund benefactors are invited to a luncheon in honor of their efforts. This year, our speaker will be Meredith Dragon, the new leader of the Rochester Jewish Community Federation. Chaired by Abbey Rasnick and Merle Marcus, this year we will also be celebrating Sisterhood's contribution to the SEEDS program. This is above and beyond our typical donations to help JTS modernize its library and chapel.

Volunteer with RAIHN!

(Rochester Area Interfaith Hospitality Network)

Our next RAIHN rotation will begin on October 30. We are looking for caring people to cook dinner, host dinner, and participate in afternoon and evening activities with RAIHN families. New volunteers require no training, and we ask only that people donate their time with family (kids welcome!) or friends.

RAIHN is a not-for-profit, interfaith organization that assists homeless families to achieve sustainable independence by supporting them with tailored services including shelter, food, personalized case management, and a diverse network of caring volunteers.

It's a perfect time to get involved NOW! For sign up information and to get onto our volunteer email list, please contact Lauren Hosek at (303-489-6566) or lrhosek@gmail.com.
