Sisterhood Shabbat

January 21, 2023

Celebrate Sisterhood's 102nd anniversary at Sisterhood Shabbat. Please join us and enjoy the service and kiddush. Would you like an honor, perhaps opening or closing the ark, or doing an English reading? Would you like read Torah or Haftorah? If you'd like to participate in any way, contact Gail Finkelstein at gailfink49@gmail.com.

Mah Jongg

Mondays, 1-3 pm, in the Beit Cafe

Join us for open play each week. Come by yourself or with a partner. Bring your set, if you have one.

Our Mah Jongg Maven, June Rapowitz, has decided to move on – it's all good; no worries. We thank her for her generous spirit, starting our Mah Jongg program and teaching us this fascinating game.

Help Wanted! Mah Jongg teacher

If interested, or if you know of someone who might help us, please contact Gail at gaifink49@gmail.com.

Yasher Koach

Our Sisterhood frequently receives awards, certificates and letters celebrating our achievements. We'd like to share a few we've received recently. Congratulations to our members, and thank you for your support and participation.

Community Service for our Temple Family

Shiva Comfort

Nichum Avelim, the mitzvah to comfort the mourner, is performed by Sisterhood's Shiva Comfort Committee. We strive to help the mourners know that the Synagogue Community is there for support, and they are not alone. We deliver a Help & Comfort Box of unperishable items that we hope will help the mourners during this difficult period. If you are interested in being a member of the Shiva Comfort Committee, please contact Susan Zauderer (585-385-7663).

Dues Reminder

Only $36. Please mail your check to TBE Sisterhood, 139 Winton Rd South, Rochester, NY 14610. If you've already paid, thank you!
