

Reflections

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sail to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch her until at length she is only a ribbon of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then someone at my side says, “There, she’s gone!” Gone where? Gone from my sight – that is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side, and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of her destination. Her diminished size is in me, not in her!

And just at the moment when someone at my side says, “There, she’s gone!” there are other voices ready to take up the glad shout, “Here she comes!” And that is dying!

Colonel David (Mickey) Marcus

Some people whose parents are living have a custom of leaving the service at this time, but even those who do not yet need to say the personal prayers of remembrance might remain and recite prayers for others as well as join in the communal prayers (beginning on page 3, below).

ADONAI, what are human beings that You take account of them, mortals that You care for them?
 Humans are as a breath, their days like a passing shadow.
 In the morning they flourish anew, in the evening they shrivel and die.
 Teach us to count each day, that we may acquire a heart of wisdom.

יהוה, מַה־אָדָם וַתִּדְעֶהוּ,
 בְּנֵי־אָנוּשׁ וַתַּחֲשְׁבֵהוּ.
 אָדָם לְהֶבֶל דָּמָה,
 יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
 בַּבֶּקֶר יִצְיֵץ וְחָלַף,
 לְעֶרֶב יִמוּלַל וַיָּבֵשׁ.
 לְמִנּוֹת יָמֵינוּ כֵּן הוֹדֵעַ
 וְנִבְיֵא לִבֵּב חֻקְמָה.

There is a time for everything, for all things under the sun:

A time to be born and a time to die,
 a time to laugh and a time to cry,
 a time to dance and a time to mourn,
 a time to seek and a time to lose, a time to forget and a time to remember.

This day in sacred convocation
 we remember those who gave us life.

We remember those who enriched our lives with love and beauty, kindness and compassion, thoughtfulness and understanding.

We renew our bonds to those who have gone the way of all the earth, to those whose memory moves us this day.

As we reflect upon them, we seek consolation, and the strength and the insight born of faith.

God is always before me, at my right hand, lest I fall.
 Therefore I am glad, made happy, though I know that my flesh will lie in the ground forever.

שׁוֹיִתִּי יְהוָה לְנֶגְדֵי תְמִיד,
 כִּי מִיְמִינִי בַל־אֲמוּט.
 לְכֵן שְׂמַח לִבִּי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדִי, אֶף בְּשָׂרֵי יִשְׁכֹּן לְבַטָּח.

The deaths of those we now remember left holes in our lives.
 But we are grateful for the gift of their lives and we are strengthened by the blessings that they left us and the precious memories that comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

INTRODUCTION. Yizkor, which is recited on Pesah, Shavuot, and Shmini Atzeret, as well as on Yom Kippur, is a time set aside to formally include in our thoughts and prayers family and friends who have passed away. During the joy of our festivals, we stop to remember those we love—a parent, a spouse or partner, a sibling, and in some cases, we mourn the tragic death of a child. May the memory of those we recall be a blessing in our lives.

WHAT ARE HUMAN BEINGS מַה־אָדָם. The verses in this passage come from Psalms 144:3–4, 90:6, and 90:12.

GOD IS ALWAYS שׁוֹיִתִּי יְהוָה. Psalm 16:8–9.

YIZKOR

When I stray from You, Adonai, my life is as death; but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.

The dust returns to dust; but the soul, which is God's, is eternal.

Adonai is compassionate to all creation, granting us a share in unending life.

God redeems our life from the grave, joining us forever in the unending chain of life.

May we preserve the memory of those we love and are now gone, through charity in deed and thought.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we lovingly remember, this day, those who live on in our hearts.

—JULIE HARLOW

Backwards and Forwards

Yizkor:

Looking backward, we recall our ancestry.

Looking forward, we confront our destiny.

Looking backward, we reflect on our origins.

Looking forward, we choose our path.

Remembering that we are a tree of life, not letting go, holding on, and holding to, we walk into an unknown, beckoning future, with our past beside us.

—HAROLD SCHULWEIS

WE RECALL

Some of us recall parents who watched over us, nursed us, guided us, and sacrificed for us.

Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife, husband, or partner with whom we were truly united—in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows.

Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up together with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities, bound to us by a heritage of family tradition and by years of togetherness and love.

Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to us too briefly, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust that enriched our lives.

So many of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage, or support us.

Though they are gone, we are grateful for the blessings they brought to our lives. We are sustained and comforted by the thought that their presence in our lives remains an enduring blessing that we can bequeath to others.

We can show our devotion to them by our devotion to those ideas that they cherished.

O God of love, make us worthy of the love we have received by teaching us to love You with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our might, and to spread the light of Your divine love on all whose lives touch ours.

Give us strength to live faithfully, for we are cheered by our confidence that You will not permit our lives to be wasted, but will bring all our worthy strivings to live on, even as we may not see their fulfillment.

צְדָקָה TZ'DAKAH/CHARITY. The Yizkor service was called seder matnat yad, the service of expressing generosity on behalf of those who have died. That name comes from the closing line of the Torah reading for the final day of the pilgrimage festivals (when Yizkor is recited): "Every person giving a gift according to the blessing they have received from Adonai" (Deuteronomy 16:17). Offering charitable gifts and performing acts of justice, love, and care in memory of those who have died provide us with ways of honoring their memory and continuing their influence for good.

Though I stared earnestly at my fingernail

Yesterday when I was on the #7 bus
I happened to look at the cuticle
of my right forefinger
and for a moment
I thought not that it was mine but that it was my father's—the same small confusion I have from time to time when I catch sight of my daughter in her denim skirt, size 3,

and I feel lean, willowy,
in her clothes.

So there I was on the #7 bus overtaken by a longing very close to love staring at the cuticle
of my right forefinger.

I remembered how clean and short he kept his nails and suddenly there was the whole man reconstituted from a fingernail standing before me,
smiling broadly,
his face flushed with pleasure.

But then just as suddenly he was gone and though I stared earnestly at my fingernail
I failed to bring him back.

MEDITATION In memory of a Father

The memory of your life, dear father, rises before me this solemn hour as I recall all the kindness, love and encouragement, which you have shown me during your life. With untiring zeal you provided for my physical and spiritual needs. You rejoiced in my achievements, you guided me in my perplexities, and strengthened me in my trials and disappointments. I can pay you the tribute, which you so richly deserve, by cherishing the ideals and principals you have taught me, and by serving my people and all who need me. Though you are gone from my physical view, the bond of love which unites us can never be severed. May the memories of your life spur me on to follow truth and righteousness. Amen.

MEDITATION In memory of a Mother

Though we are separated, dear mother, in this solemn hour, I call to mind the love and solicitude with which you tended and watched over my childhood, ever mindful of my welfare, and ever anxious for my happiness. Many were the sacrifices you made to ennoble my heart and instruct my mind. What I achieved is because of your influence, and what I am, I have become through you. Though you are no longer physically present, the lessons that you imparted unto me shall ever remain with me.

If at times, I have failed in showing you the love and appreciation, which you so worthily deserved, if I have been thoughtless and ungrateful, I ask to be forgiven. I pray that your spirit inspire me to noble and intelligent living, so that when my days on earth are ended, and I arrive at the Throne of Mercy, I shall be deemed worthy of you, and to be reunited with you in God. Amen.

MEDITATION

In memory of a Husband, Wife or Partner

With a sorrowing heart, my beloved, I fondly recall your love and companionship, your tenderness and devotion, and the many comforts and joys that you brought in to my life. Though death has taken you from me, the bond, which unites us, cannot be broken.

○ God, I pray that my grief at the departure of my beloved, engender within me sympathy and kindness, understanding and helpfulness towards all mankind. Grant that the memories of my dear one impel me to seek goodness and truth, to serve Israel and humanity. Teach me by my aspirations and daily living to reflect honor upon my beloved who was dear to me in life. Be my comfort and strength. Amen.

MEDITATION

In memory of a Child

I remember in this solemn hour, beloved child, the many joys you afforded me during your lifetime. I recall the days when I delighted in your physical and mental growth, and planned for your future. Though death has taken you from me, you are not forgotten. Your spirit is enshrined in my heart.

○ Heavenly Father, I thank You for the precious gift which You entrusted to my keeping, and which in Your infinite wisdom You have called back unto Yourself. Though few were the years wherein I rejoiced with my child, many were the blessing that he (she) brought into my household. Teach me to live more nobly and to extend my love and devotion to other children in thankfulness for the privilege of having had his (her) soul be bound up in the bond of life and his (her) memory remain an inspiration to me. Amen.

*A Yizkor Meditation in Memory of a Parent
Who Was Hurtful*

Dear God,

You know my heart. Indeed, You know me better than I know myself, so I turn to You before I rise for Kaddish.

My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. The parent I remember was not kind to me. His/her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds, of anger and of dismay that a parent could hurt a child as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love, or to grieve that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right as a Jew and as a child.

Help me, O God, to subdue my bitter emotions that do me no good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may lie hidden, and where grief for all that could have been, all that should have been, may be calmed by forgiveness, or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You, who raise up slaves to freedom, will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger, and that You will lead me from this desert to Your holy place.

I and you and our lives

I and you

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, whose radiance is like the heavens, to the souls of all those we have recalled today. May their memory be a blessing, and may they rest in paradise. Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. PSALM 23

A PSALM OF DAVID.

ADONAI is my shepherd, I shall not want.
God gives me repose in green meadows, and guides me over calm waters.
God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path—for that is God's way.
Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm, for You are at my side.
Your staff and Your rod comfort me.
You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes:
You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of ADONAI in the fullness of time.

WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and at its going down
We remember them.
At the blowing of the wind and the chill of winter
We remember them.
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring
We remember them.
At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer
We remember them.
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn
We remember them.
At the beginning of the year and when it ends
We remember them.
As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us, as
We remember them.
When we are weary and in need of strength
We remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart
We remember them.
When we have joy we crave to share
We remember them.
When we have decisions that are difficult to make
We remember them.
When we have achievements that are based on theirs
We remember them.
As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us, as
We remember them.

Kaddish

Its origin is mysterious; angels are said to have brought it down from Heaven and taught it to all of us. About this prayer the tenderest threads of filial feeling and human recollection are entwined: for it is the prayer of the orphans! When the father or mother dies, the surviving children are to recite it twice daily, morning and evening, throughout the year of mourning, and then also on each recurring anniversary of the death – on the Yahrzeit.

It possesses wonderful power. Truly, if there is any bond strong and indissoluble enough to chain Heaven to earth, it is this prayer. It keeps the living together, and forms the bridge to the mysterious realm of the dead. One might almost say that this prayer is the watchman and the guardian of the people by whom it is uttered; therein lies the warrant of its continuance. Can a people disappear and be annihilated so long as a child remembers his parents?

Because this prayer is a resurrection in the spirit of the perishable in us because it does not acknowledge death, because it permits the blossom which, withered has fallen from the tree of mankind to flower and develop again in the human heart – therefore, it possesses sanctifying power. To know that when thou diest, the earth falling on thy head will not cover thee entirely; to know that on this wide earth, whether they be poor or rich, will send this prayer after thee; to know that thou leavest them no house, no estate, no field by which they must remember thee, and that yet they will cherish thy memory as their dearest inheritance – what more satisfying knowledge canst thou ever hope for?

We Remember

Memorial Prayer for those murdered on October 7th, 2023 & killed during the Iron Swords War

Composed by Lt. Col. Shai Abramson, Chief Cantor of the IDF

God, full of mercy, Who dwells on high, grant fitting rest on the wings of the Divine Presence - in the heights of the holy, the pure and the brave, who shine like the radiance of heaven - To the souls of the holy ones, residents of Israel - men, women, and children - who were killed, murdered, burned and slaughtered by the vile Hamas murderers, and who sacrificed their lives in the consecration of God's name in the vicious attacks on the dwelling places of the State of Israel; and To the souls of the soldiers of the Israel Defense Forces, the officers of the Israel Police, and the members of the security services who sacrificed their lives for the consecration of God's name and died a heroic death in battles defending the people and the land. For this we pray for the ascent of their souls, may they rest in the Garden of Eden.

Therefore, Master of Compassion, shelter them in the shadow of Your wings forever, and bind their souls in the bond of everlasting life. The Lord is their heritage. May they rest in peace and may they receive their reward at the End of Days. And let us say: Amen.

אזכרה לנרצחי התקפות החמאס והנופלים בקרבות

א-ל מלא רחמים שוכן במרומים, המצא מנוחה נכונה על כנפי השכינה, במעלות קדושים, שהורים וגבורים כזוהר הרקיע מאירים ומזהירים, לנשמות הקדושים אורחי ישראל, אנשים, נשים וטף, שנהרגו, שניצחו, שנשרפו שנטבחו בידי מרצחי החמאס בני העולה, ומסרו נפשם על קדוש השם, בהתקפה האכזרית על ישובי מדינת ישראל. ולנשמות חילי צבא ההגנה לישראל, שוטרי משטרת ישראל ואנשי כוחות הבטחון שמסרו נפשם על קדושת השם ונפלו מות גבורים בקרבות על הגנת העם והארץ. בעבור שאנו מתפללים לעלו נשמותיהם, בגן עדן תהא מנוחתם.

לכו בעל הרחמים, יסתירם בסתר כנפיו לעולמים, ויצורו בצרור החיים את נשמותיהם. י-הוה הוא נחלתם, וינוחו בשלום על משכבותם ויעמדו לגורלם לקץ הימיו, ונאמר אמן.
